ABOUT ME

I am a passionate Computer Science student with a strong interest in web development and programming. My primary focus is on building modern, user-friendly websites that are not only functional but also scalable. I have hands-on experience in designing and developing websites using front-end technologies such as HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, with a solid understanding of how to structure static websites for future expansion, including potential database integration. I am always eager to learn new technologies and am looking for opportunities to apply my skills and gain valuable industry experience through an internship.

PROJECTS

Sneaker Store Website
Designed and developed a modern e-commerce shoe store website using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and JSON with a static data structure. Implemented a shopping cart system with Local Storage and created a scalable structure for future database integration or user authentication. Ensured responsive design for cross-device functionality and enhanced user experience with interactive features like a carousel.

Florist's Website
Developed a personal portfolio website using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript with a static data structure. Focused on ease of use and professional presentation, featuring a responsive design for cross-device compatibility, enhanced user experience through animations, and a clear, structured layout.
